Press Release
Board of Health Special Meeting on Jan. 20

The Gallatin City-County Board of Health will meet Wednesday, Jan. 20 at 7 AM to consider extending local emergency health rules intended to slow transmission of COVID-19.

The rules that the Board will consider extending rules that pertain to:

- Face coverings in public places
- Restrictions on how certain businesses - including bars, restaurants, gyms and fitness centers, and places of assembly - operate during the pandemic
- Isolation and quarantine
- Visitation at nursing homes, skilled nursing facilities, and senior and assisted living facilities

Wednesday's meeting will be virtual in order to follow social distancing protocols and to keep participants safe. Those who wish to comment on the proposed rule extensions can send public comments electronically prior to the meeting or access the meeting via computer or telephone to help keep everyone safe and socially distanced.

The proposed Board rules and other meeting materials can be found here.

Public comments can be submitted by filling out this online form. The Board will accept written comments until 4 PM on Tuesday, Jan. 19.
